ABOUT US

Day in, day out, we help the world's leading investors get smart on complex and fast-moving investment opportunities. Canadian breweries today, Spanish toll roads tomorrow, consumer goods in Nigeria the day after – we work to our clients' ever-changing demands and tight deadlines. We pride ourselves on sourcing, engaging, and providing access to the best-informed industry professionals to help our clients make better-informed decisions. Over the past three years we have grown from a start-up to a global operation filled with some of the brightest minds in the industry. As a team we are dynamic, motivated and share a make-things-happen attitude.

ABOUT THE OPPORTUNITY

We are looking for confident and motivated graduates to join us and drive our business forward. We nurture talent and recognize the importance of each individual in the success of the entire company. From your first day with us you will be an integral member of the team, have exposure to leading investors around the globe, and work directly with senior decision makers in diverse industries. We provide an environment in which to learn, collaborate and develop skills that you will utilize throughout your career. For talented and ambitious people we offer a steep learning curve, a fast track towards commercial and team leadership, and exciting opportunities to grow and develop our business internationally.

ABOUT YOU

You possess drive, resourcefulness and a "can do" attitude. It is in your nature to be proactive, seek responsibility and to go the extra mile. You are a team player and connect easily with whomever you come into contact with. You are likely to have the following:

- A high level of academic achievement at school and university
- A thirst for life, evidenced by interest and achievements in whatever field you are passionate about
- A natural curiosity and an ambition to expand your horizons, demonstrated by your immersion in other cultures, languages or fields of interest
- An innate interest in business coupled with the desire to continuously develop your professional skills and progress within a forward thinking organization.
