

ADMINISTRATION INTERNSHIP

REF. No. 1052

About us

Our intern programme is a structured three month programme that aims to provide exposure and experience to a number of different areas of our consultancy business. Throughout the programme, you will gain first-hand an understanding of the operations of a consultancy firm, of the different clients that we are working with, and of the different types of projects that we support these clients to deliver. You will build a number of key transferrable skills that are core competencies for succeeding both in business administration and in the consulting industry, and we will work with you to tailor your internship where possible to fit the experience that you are looking to gain.

Tasks

You will learn about the core processes that sit behind the face of consultancy, including but not limited to:

- event organisation
- supply management
- contract management
- office management

Examples of activities as part of this internship will include:

- scanning, filing and organising documents and files
- event organisation including room bookings, sending out invites
- ordering of stationery and office supplies
- diary management, organising meetings, booking train tickets and hotels
- managing contacts
- preparing template documents
- greeting guests and answering general inquiries
- assisting with proposals
- general office duties, e.g. watering the plants, collecting the post, emptying the dishwasher
