

DESIGN INTERNSHIP

REF. No. 1095

About us

The studio, situated in the artistic heart of Barcelona, is right a stone's throw away from the famous Picasso museum. Visitors create their individual and unique sculptures, tables, images and jewellery or simply buy souvenirs in the shop. The Trencadis method of Antonio Gaudi and Josep Maria Jujol and other mosaic techniques are available in the studio. Participants can leave free run to creativity in workshops and teambuilding.

Tasks

- Support in the production of handcrafted works
- Preparation of material
- Design of new products
- Support of international clients in the art courses
- Organisation of events

Skills needed

- creative and interested in art
- love working in a team
- reliable and responsible person
- open and communicative
- very good English and German skills, if possible good Spanish skills
- study design, art, architecture, or a similar creative background

Duration of the internship

4 – 6 months

Office languages

English

Location

Barcelona

PRAKTIKUM IN LONDON

Financial support

As discussed

Office hours

Full or half time